Mr. C. C. Calhoun has put in about a week wrestling with grip. He is now getting the best of it.

After an able sermon by the Pastor, Rev. M. A. Banker, at the Third Street M. E. Church last night, there were two additions.

Mr. W. A. Talliaferro of Chatham, Bracken county, died this morning. Mrs. Talliaferro is a sister of Mrs. J. B. Burgess of this city.

The sports had a cocking main somewhere beyond Mayslick Saturday night, but they have pinned the corners of their mouth and refuse to belch up.

Mr. John N. Wallingford, Internal Revenue Collector of Aurora, Ind., is here today en route home. He has been attending the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Jones, in Fleming county.

The revival services will continue every night this week at the Third Street M. E. Church. The meetings are growing in interest and power. The Pastor preached to a full house last night. Mr. Lloyd Muse will sing a solo at tonight's services.

A horrible crime is reported to have occurred in Ripley Saturday evening. In effect a young farmer murdered his sweetheart, cutting her throat from ear to ear and then hid the body in a cypress. He then left the neighborhood in a buggy belonging to a liveryman and as yet has not been captured.

Saturday night some mean sneak stole Doc Wallace's penny-in-the-slot chowing gum machine that stood on the outside of the door at his restaurant. Doc was hot on their trail yesterday with blood in his eyes. The smashed machine was found late yesterday evening at the foot of Short street, where it had been thrown in the river.

While paying her sister a visit yesterday evening, who is employed at Mrs. O. H. P. Thomas's in West Second street, Mary Forge, aged about 15, lost her balance while leaning over a second story porch, fell to the pavement and lighting on her head was seriously hurt. She was unconscious for several hours. She is better this morning but remains in a precarious condition.

We are offering some special bargains in Sterling Silver Knives, Forks, Spoons, Sugar Spoons, Butter Knives, Icecream Spoons and Forks, Salad and Oyster Forks, etc. Special attention given to watch, jewelry and clock repairing. We are prepared to match stones in rings or other jewelry of any kind.

THE PROPER THING.

MAYSVILLE, KY., March 14, 1904.

Editor Ledger: Let the moral element of this city get together and organize a Law and Order League, combined with a Humane Society, for the enforcement of saloon and other laws, and a protection for humanity and dumb beasts. Things are running rampant.

Is it not time to call a halt before we regret it? Let the movement be for the purification of the morals of the city. Who will take the initiative?

Call a mass meeting and organize. A. M. J.

KENTUCKY IN WASHINGTON

She Keeps Up Her Reputation in Society at the Capital

Daisy Fitzhugh Ayres, in her Sunday letter to The Courier-Journal, says Kentucky was out in force last week at the pretty tea Mrs. Van Duzer, the beautiful Kentucky wife of the Representative-at-Large from Nevada, gave at her home in Q street.

Mrs. Van Duzer, once Miss Nellie Webster of Cynthiana, in a handsome costume of white, was assisted in receiving by Mrs. James N. Kehoe, wife of the Representative from Maysville.

Mr. Kehoe made a brilliant and impassioned address at the celebration here of the birthday of Robert Emmet.

MORE HIGH KICKING!

How An Actress Made Good Her Word In This City

The high kicking contest of the athletic class of the Y. M. C. A. as published in Saturday's LEDGER was a subject of discussion yesterday among a coterie of gentlemen who, in other days, were considered—and in a certain sense are so considered at the present time—premier kickers of note and ability.

They were descending of feats performed at the old gymnasium that stood on the site now occupied by Dr. Barbour's residence in Market street, and when Peter D. Courtney was their instructor and idol in gymnastic exercises.

Those were joyful days to memory dear—but let that pass as an unforgetten dream; it was of high kicking they were talking.

After a number had had their say, one gentleman whose hair is tinged with gray, frosted by many winters and many sins committed, said:

"Your remarks bring to mind an incident I once witnessed in this city some years ago.

"I happened at the time to be stopping at a house where two actresses were also lodging.

"They were putting in a week here at the Opera-house, and the specialty of one of the ladies happened to be that of a dancer and high kicker.

"In the hallway of the second story of the house was suspended a large globe lamp—it hung at least seven feet from the floor.

"The two actresses in passing to their room one morning casually remarked in the hearing of the man of the house how easily she could lift that lamp with one swipo of her dainty pedalian.

"You can?" queried the Vegetarian, never for a moment giving credence to the assertion.

"Yes, I can, and if you will stand for all damages I will prove it to you."

"All right, go ahead," replied the doubting Thomas.

"Stepping back a few feet and with a hop-skip-and-a-jump she bounded in the air like a rubber ball and with the toe of her slipper upset the lamp and it came to the floor with a crash.

"They then ducked into their room for shelter against the coming storm.

"Holy Moses, what will my wife say!" almost shrieked the frightened man as he sprang about the floor endeavoring to gather up the fragments of the shattered lamp.

"The lady of the house, hearing the terrible noise, ran to the foot of the steps and addressed her husband in a tone indicating displeasure:

"What in the name of common sense has happened to you up there?"

"Although the life was nearly scared out of him he gathered his wits sufficiently to say:

"Oh nothing, dear, in taking down the lamp to clean it, it slipped out of my hand and fell to the floor and broke all to pieces."

"This information seemingly pacified the wife and at the same time relieved the man's strained nerves from a high tension.

"That," remarked the narrator, "was the highest and neatest kick I ever saw."

The stillness that fell upon the group at the conclusion of the story was a silent admission that they thought it remarkable too.

J. H. Rains & Co.'s recent tobacco purchases have aggregated 32,500 pounds.

The Ladies' Committee will meet at the Y. M. C. A. Rooms this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The C. and O. will soon change the schedule and may put on another fast mail train.

Mrs. N. C. Rudy, who has been ill at her home in Forest avenue, continues to improve.

Deputy Circuit Clerk B. B. Pollitt and mother will shortly move into the Power residence in Court street.

Samuel Pryor Tarvin, a brother of Judge James P. Tarvin of Covington, died a few days ago at Hot Springs, Ark.

Well Again.

The many friends of John Mount will be pleased to learn that he has entirely recovered from his attack of rheumatism. Chamberlain's Pain Balm cured him after the best doctors in the town (Mons. Ind.) had failed to give relief. The prompt relief from pain which this liniment affords is alone worth many times its cost. For sale by J. J. Wood & Son.

Miss Frances Frssee of Hamilton College, Lexington, is ill with grip.

Dr. S. E. Pollitt of Minerva is ill with the grip and two of his children are also sick.

Andrew Carnegie will be appealed to for assistance in building a new Colored School building at Dover.

Rev. G. P. Taubman, Pastor of the Portsmouth Christian Church, has been asked to deliver two addresses before the State Convention of the Kentucky Christian Endeavor Society, which will be held in Glasgow in May on "Christian Citizenship" and "Work Among the Boys and Girls."

Attorney R. D. Hill of Louisville has filed a brief before the Court of Appeals in the Caleb Powers case, in which he gives notice that an appeal will be taken to the United States Supreme Court, should that Court affirm the death sentence of the Scott Circuit Court. He alleges discrimination in summoning jurors, in that an equal number of Republicans and Democrats should have been selected.

In Louisville last week there were 22 deaths from pneumonia.

THE HOME HEATHEN

Work For Missionaries Here Instead of in Foreign Countries

There are pathetic and sad incidents as well as strenuous and exciting times that come to a Policeman in his rounds, especially at the close of the last day of the week.

Saturday night in his rounds Policeman Dryden arrested in the West End of the city Bertha Hafner, Rena Reed and Effie Blythe, all young girls whose ages range from 14 to 17 years, on the charge of being drunk.

He also has warrants for William Combes, Bernard Rogers, Homer Gilbert and John Cabler for the same offense.

Cabler is further charged with having procured the whisky and given it to the girls.

The hunch will be tried in the Police Court today.

Talk about the heathen of foreign lands, how would it do to get down to real hard pan and do a little work in that line right in our own midst? There is real work here for the man or woman who is not afraid of soiling their garments by coming in contact with home heathens.

Emil Wels of the Market Street Meat Store has rented the Zweigart Cold Storage plant, and now has the only proper meat—that entirely free from animal heat. Try him for a superior steak or roast.

MR. RICHARD BUEHLER IN "PAUL REVERE." Listen my children, and you will hear, Of the midnight ride of Paul Revere.

At the Washington Opera-house next Saturday, March 19th. Handsome, dashing Richard Buehler appears as "Paul Revere" and numbers among his support some excellent people of histrionic ability. To see the ride of Paul Revere is a thrilling incident, graphically presented and one to be over remembered. This scene has aroused the wildest enthusiasm. In its construction, stage mechanism has reached its zenith—A Gigantic Panoramas, revolving across the stage at varied amounts of speed, displaying a Moving Landscape, including towns, villages and hamlets, through which Paul Revere galloped at break-neck speed, constantly in view of the audience for four minutes.

Happy, Healthy Children.

Any child can take Little Early Risers with perfect safety. They are harmless, never gripe or sicken, and yet they are so certain in results that robust constitutions requiring drastic means are never disappointed. They cannot fail to perform their mission, and every one who uses DeWitt's Little Early Risers prefer them to all other pills. They cure biliousness. Sold by J. J. Wood & Son, Druggists.

WITH radium now quoted at $12,600,000 a pound; what is to become of the country Editor?

IF a fine of $1 for knocking a small hole in the peace entails a bill of costs reaching to $11, isn't there some hocus pocus by which a $5 fine can be elongated to $55 in the shape of costs? The Rule of Progression might be applied.

IF THE LEDGER was as large as Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow's ears, it would print what General GROSVENOR and some other members of Congress—Democratic and Republican—said about him the other day during a debate on his false and malicious report on the so-called Postoffice scandals.

ABOUT the most thrilling numbers of The Congressional Record that have appeared so far are the issues of March 9th and 10th. The subject matter was the honorable—with a l. c. "h" and the ancient "u"—JAYHAWKER L. BRISTOW, Fourth Assistant Postmaster General. The numbers named ought to have been printed on asbestos.

THE wire was animated a few days ago with this cautionary warning—

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 10.—The Lower House of the General Assembly today adopted a bill making infidelity the only ground for divorce. The Senate adopted a bill preventing the hunting of any kind of game between September 15th and November 15th of each year.

Will some one please rise up and explain the connection.

THE seat of War seems for the present to have been transferred from the Far East to the House of Representatives at Washington; and the way the Congressmen have been bombarding the Fourth Assistant Postmaster General is enough to make him scuttle his revolving chair.

THE Topographer's Bureau of the Postoffice Department is in trouble over Beckham county. A new Postoffice map of the state may be necessary, and the trouble is that the officials do not know exactly where to locate the new county. If they will, but apply to Captain BEN. SMITH, Maysville's Street Commissioner, he may find it buried most anywhere along Second street.

THE Louisville Times thinks the following statement by JOHN MITCHELL is not likely to meet the approval of the Walking Delegate:

"I remember," he declares, "the time when I regarded my employer as my natural enemy. I thought it was my business to fight him continually. And I felt it was the sphere of Unions to antagonize the bosses at every point. A fight is sometimes necessary, I still recognize, but the best interests of both parties are best served, I now appreciate, by establishing harmonious relations between them. I believe there is no irreconcilable conflict between capital and labor."

With harmonious relations established, The Times adds, the Walking Delegate would be forced to work for a living, and that is a condition which must be averted, even at the cost of strikes involving the loss of millions.

Political Pickings

WASTED "POINT OF ORDER."

Louisville Herald.

The foolish point of order is raised that the Goebel monument appropriation did not receive the lawful vote in the Senate to make its passage stick. That's nothing. Mr. Goebel did not receive the lawful vote of the state to make him Governor, or the lawful vote of the General Assembly to even consecrate the theft of his office. But the thieves have been holding the offices all right "under the forms of law." The Goebel cult is a mysterious form of vice.

Stop... Coughing!

This is not a command—only a suggestion. We suggest that you stop that slight cough before it becomes too late. Oftentimes people say "Oh, it is only a slight cough; it will soon wear off." The cough grows worse, and they have to resort to strong medicine and perhaps have a long sickness. If in the beginning they had used a mild remedy they would have saved themselves and others a great deal of trouble and worry. There is nothing so annoying as a hacking cough; it not only disturbs the one who is coughing, but it disturbs and annoys every one who is in hearing. To those who are troubled with a cough we suggest a bottle of...

Mrs. Minerva Hord, wife of Mr. R. B. Hord, died early this morning at her home near Reeterville, after an illness of two weeks.

She was about 70 years of age and is survived by her husband and six children—Messrs. Abner, Thornton, Oscar and Dr. W. H. Hord, Miss Mollie Hord, and Mrs. Nannie Teager of Tellerboro.

Mrs. Hord was one of Mason county's highly respected women, and her death is most sincerely mourned.

The time of the funeral has not yet been decided on, but the interment will probably take place tomorrow in Mt. Olivet Cemetery.

TROUBLE IN BECKHAM

Republicans Are Up in Arms in Kentucky's Brandnew County

A special to The Courier-Journal says the Republicans of Beckham county are up in arms against the decision of Chairman Barnett of the Republican State Central Committee refusing to allow the county representation in the party conventions.

A mass-meeting of the Republicans has been called, when the matter will be discussed and acted upon.

Much derision is poked at the exclamation of Chairman Barnett: "We held the act creating the county unconstitutional."

The leaders in Beckham say that it takes more than Chairman Barnett to keep them out of the councils of the party.

Saturday Frank Devine sold to Charles D. Sulser for Myall and Devine the Greenwood house and lot in the Sixth Ward for $650 cash.

Saturday in the Police Court the warrants against Mitchell & Burgoyne and T. Sullivan, for selling liquor on Sunday, were dismissed on the ground that the particular statute upon which the warrants were issued was contrary to the Constitution, it being special legislation.

Yesterday was the 54th anniversary of the birthday of Uncle Robert Picklin. He is not too old, however, to sport his flowers. He looked like a happy man yesterday as he prom-naded Third; and why not? The possessor of a handsome wife, the father of two beautiful daughters and the proud grandfather of three children, why shouldn't he be happy?

ANOTHER LIE NAILED

Hon. Caleb Powers Not Asking For Executive Clemency

Ex-Secretary of State Caleb Powers, convicted by a unanimously Goebellite Jury of "complicity" in the murder of Senator Goebel, and now in the Louisville Jail under sentence of death, denies the report sent out from Covington that he will ask Governor Beckham to commute his sentence.

"If my friends were circulating any petition in my behalf I surely would know about it," said Powers to a Courier-Journal reporter Saturday.

He insisted that he had made no request for leniency on the part of the Chief Executive of the state, and furthermore said it was not his intention to do so.

PARDONED BY GOVERNOR

One of the Gang Who Assaulted Mrs. Gleason at Newport

Edward Stevens, who with William Croxton and several others was convicted in the Circuit Court at Newport in 1897 for criminally assaulting Mrs. Bertha Gleason in the Alexandria pike, and was sentenced to the Penitentiary in Frankfort for a term of twenty years, has been pardoned by Governor Beckham after serving seven years.

Stevens declares that he was innocent of the crime for which he was convicted, but as he was a member of the gang he was compelled to share the punishment.

It will be recalled that the feeling against these "toughs" was so strong in Newport that they were brought to this city for safe-keeping; and that the Jail was watched nightly, fearing an attack here.

The condition of Attorney L. W. Galbraith continues very critical.

How is it that we have no more parades on St. Patrick's Day? It is observed in other cities, and at no late day was looked forward to in this city.

It is pleasant to the taste and palatable, and the only combination of digestants that will digest the food and enable the system to appropriate all of its health and strength-giving qualities. TRIBUTE TO GRASS

Words of Late Senator John James Ingalls of Kansas

The following tribute to "Grass," from the pen of the late Senator John J. Ingalls of Kansas, is a beautiful piece of word-painting—
"Lying in the sunshine among the buttercups and the dandelions of May, scarcely higher in intelligence than the minute tenants of that mimic wilderness, our earliest recollections are of grass; and when the fitful fever is ended and the foolish wrangle of the market and forum is closed, grass heals over the scar which our descent into the bosom of the earth has made, and the carpet of the infant becomes the blanket of the dead. Grass is the forgiveness of nature—her constant benediction. Fields trampled with battle, saturated with blood, torn with the ruts of cannon, grow green again with grass and carnage is forgotten. Streets abandoned by traffic become grass-grown like rural lanes and are obliterated. Forests decay, harvests perish, flowers vanish, but grass is immortal. Beleguered by the sullen hosts of winter, it withdraws into the impregnable fortress of its subterranean vitality, and emerges upon the first solicitation of spring. Sown by the winds, by the wandering birds, propagated by the subtle horticulture of the elements which are its ministers and servants, it softens the rude outline of the world. Its tenacious fibers hold the earth in its place, and prevent its soluble component from washing into the wasting sea. It invades the solitude of deserts, climbs the inaccessible slopes and forbidding pinnacles of mountains, modifies climates and determines the history, character and destiny of Nations. Unobtrusive and patient, it has immortal vigor and aggression. Bannished from the thoroughfares and the fields it abides its time to return, and when vigilance is relaxed, or the dynasty has perished, it silently resumes the throne from which it has been expelled, but which it never abdicates. It bears no bazonry of bloom to charm the senses with fragrance or splendor, but its homely hue is more enchanting than the lily or the rose. It yields no fruit in earth or air, yet should its harvest fail for a single year, famine would depopulate the world."

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it.

How To Find Out.
Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.
There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

HEAD IT THROUGH.

'Twould Spoil This Story to Tell It in the Headlines.

To use an eighteenth century phrase, this is an "old true tale." Having happened in a small Virginia town in the winter of 1902, it is a story very much of the present. Up to a short time ago Mrs. John E. Harmon of Melfa Station, Va., had no personal knowledge of the rare curative properties of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. "Last January," she says, "my baby took a dreadful cold and at one time I feared she would have to remain in bed until she was cured. I had heard of this remedy but one of my neighbors told me how this remedy had cured her little boy and I began giving it to my baby at once and it soon cured her. I heartily thank the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for placing so great a cure within my reach. I cannot recommend it too highly or say too much in its favor. I hope all who read this will try it and be convinced as I was." For sale by J. J. Wood & Son.

Mr. Isaac Lane, contractor and builder, residing at 336 West Second street, says:

"Doan's Kidney Pills do all that is claimed for them and do it promptly and thoroughly. I had not taken all of one box before I felt such great relief that a continuance of the treatment seemed unnecessary. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore, corner of West Second and Market streets. If there should be any re-occurrence of the trouble I now have a knowledge of a reliable remedy to end the attack."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box.

Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.
